THIS IS AMBER

Our name comes from the Amber trading route between Baltic Sea and Europe and Mediterrenean Sea. We decided to use this name to represent our well-travelled food, design and philosophy. Just like the trading routes, we aim to trade knowledge, experiences, friendships and flavors of all kinds, all day every day at Amber.

The Amber Road reflects everything that makes us special – from our eastern Mediterranean roots to our modern London spirit. It inspired us to channel the flavours of our travels abroad and our heritage into one dining experience. A space where stories exchange hands as freely as the wine flows. This is Amber. A place where all are welcome.

Whoever you are. Wherever you've come from. You'll be welcomed with open arms at Amber. After all, it's a family tradition for our founder, that any guest who walks through our door is met with table space, food to share and a warm, generous spirit.
